With a very liveable layout that will hold enormous appeal for young families and downsizers alike, the accommodation provides two generous living areas offering space to relax, entertain or simply dine with family. The kitchen is light and bright and features a very workable footprint plus a casual breakfast bar, while outside the north-facing patio gives a private low maintenance setting to enjoy the fresh air. Full-width rear access from the double auto garage allows part of the space to be used for trailer parking or similar if needed.
