

18 Richard Street SPRINGVALE SOUTH VIC

4 1 2

A corner opportunity with enormous potential, this much-loved weatherboard home will excite any buyers looking for a promising renovation project or site for a stunning new build. A sundrenched northerly frontage to Richard Street as well as driveway access via Reginald Street, the home also enjoys a convenient location near fabulous amenities.

With hardwood floors adding warmth through the accommodation, the layout includes a generous formal lounge and dining zone along with an open plan kitchen meals area. The four bedrooms share a central bathroom with a handy separate WC off the laundry, while a heater and air-conditioner are also offered. An elevated deck and well-sized garden plus lock-up garage/storage shed conclude the package.

With a bit of modern flourish through the comfortable interiors and some alfresco panache in the blank canvas garden, this could be a stylish base that would leave room to extend in the future as your family grows. But if you long for something totally brand-new, the site can be cleared to make way for a stunning family residence or potential dual
